

Second Week

Of This Suit Sale of Powerful Values.

The price is small—the values are great—and value is what makes the bargain really a bargain.

Therefore, we underscore this statement:

The suits offered in this sale are worth up to $18.

That's what they were made to sell for. That what we guarantee them to be. And this guarantee of ours covers every point that makes for suit satisfaction—quality, fit, fashion.

It is an exceptionally well assorted lot of Suits—embracing Serges and Thibets, as well as Fancy Cheviots and Homespuns and Cassimeres and Worsteds. And they are made up in the styles that are in most demand.

Because there are all sizes—full lots—adds materially to the strength of the offerings.

Remember, that every Suit is a guaranteed-by-us Suit—choice is unprecedented at

TEN DOLLARS.

WILL BE EVENT IN MUNICIPAL CIRCLES

The municipal investigation which will begin before the joint Council committee in the City Hall to-morrow afternoon will be the event of the week. It is not, indeed, of the year in local circles. The first meeting will be only for the purpose of organization, and then the body will be called for business a few days later, probably Wednesday night. It is expected that night sessions will be held, and that the matter will be pressed with much vigor.

Mr. John B. Minor will preside at all the meetings, and is expected to be vigorous in his examination of witnesses. "There is no power on earth," said Mr. Minor last night, "which could induce me to sign a report exonerating any one who may be found guilty, or fixing responsibility upon any one who may not be convicted. I believe this is the feeling of the entire committee."

POLICY MAN SENTENCED

Given Six Months and Fined a Goodly Sum.

BIG SHIPMENT POTATOES

One Hundred Thousand Dollars' Worth of Tubers Leave Norfolk in a Single Day—Negro's Mangled Remains Found on Track.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., June 20.—Stewart Whitehurst, charged with running a game of policy at No. 50 Washington Street, was sentenced in the Police Court this morning for a term of six months in jail and to pay a fine of $250 and costs. That is a sentence of the same dimensions as that inflicted on the other policy-player in the same court yesterday. There were appeals in both cases to the Corporation Court.

The cases of the two marine engineers, Wood Downing and A. C. Meekins, accused of assaulting and beating S. D. Priest, who does not belong to the association, was called in the Police Court by Justice Taylor this morning and continued to Tuesday for the purpose of obtaining witnesses from North Carolina. The two men were released on the same bonds of $300 each for their appearance.

GREAT SHIPMENT OF POTATOES.
This is the height of the potato season and this is the greatest day of the harvest. The steamer Princess Anne, of the Old Dominion line, will leave here to-night with a full cargo of truck, including potatoes, beans and cabbage, but mostly potatoes, of which there will be 15,000 barrels. The Cape Charles route will take all it can carry, or about 200 barrels and 5,000 barrels will go by the Merchants' and Miners' boat to Boston. As the prices are $3.50 to $4 a barrel, the shipment of potatoes alone from here to-day will represent a money value of over $100,000. The Old Dominion will run the Guyandotte as an extra boat to-morrow night to accommodate the traffic that is offering at its docks to take advantage of prices that have not been realized for truck since 1893.

This is the first season that large shipments of truck have been sent to the West. One day last week seventeen carloads of potatoes were sent and to-day and yesterday each of the two ships of 2,000 barrels over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. These are consigned to Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Detroit.

NEGRO MANAGED BY TRAIN.

The horribly mangled body of William Bain (colored) was found early this morning on the Atlantic Coast Line bridge, just beyond Port Norfolk. Bain was about 30 years of age and employed by Joseph Cotton as a farm hand. He left the farm on Thursday and came to the city to draw his pension. This fact was known to Bain's son, who called at the farm yesterday to inquire if his father had returned, and on being told that he had not, loitered around the premises and was last seen near the railroad about midnight. Early this morning Mr. Cotton found the mangled remains of the old man. His leg was missing, and his body was found near Bruce's Station, nearly two miles from the bridge. It is suspected that Bain was killed by his son and robbed of his pension money and the body afterward thrown on the railroad track in order to cover up the crime. An inquest over the remains was held by Inquester Bunting and the verdict was that the man came to his death by being run over by a train on the Atlantic Coast Line track.
